MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT : Additional Conversation with Captain Martin D. Carmody, USN, on 15 July

1. Closing out our several discussions of 15 July, Captain Carmody called to advise me that he had spoken to Rear Admiral C. E. Weakley, USN, Deputy Director of Research and Development for the Navy, who controls the fortunes of ONA (Office of Naval Research) about the carrier training operation for which the classified code name of [REDACTED] has been assigned.

2. Captain Carmody said that Admiral Weakley, who is Deputy to Vice Admiral Rayburn, seemed to be quite willing to lend the good name of [REDACTED] to the training exercise on the KITTY HAWK next month. The plan would be that the aircraft would be suitably marked with lettering and/or [REDACTED] before it was hoisted aboard the carrier in North Island. Personnel of the launch party would be attributed to [REDACTED] and might even wear appropriate name plates reflecting this association. Captain Carmody has proposed to Admiral Weakley the nomination of Mr. Everett "Bink" Greinke, OP-07T12, within the R & D complex as the point of contact for support on matters involving the projected cover development. Security Staff, OSA, should check with Commander [REDACTED] regarding the clearances for Admiral Weakley and Mr. Greinke. [REDACTED] cannot get together with Mr. Greinke shortly to flesh out the proposed cover. Mr. Greinke is described as an old friend and working associate of [REDACTED] and it is likely that his assistance will be required in the longer term carrier solution as it deals with the establishment of an on-board photographic laboratory facility.
